

B LANDSKRON

/ WEB DEVELOPER

DEAR RECRUITER:

I hope you are very well, My name is Bastian Landskron.

I am very passionate about studying, I like to learn new things.

For me, studying is like the journey that a treasure hunter undertakes, since each new thing I learn I keep and take care of as a treasure of great value, I feel that this quality is one of the things that makes me different, I love challenges and new experiences.

Currently I have knowledge of HTML5 - CSS3 - JAVASCRIPT and PYTHON.

I love to teach and share my acquired knowledge, for me education is a great step to change our world.

I consider that I could contribute a lot in my work since this for me is considered an important pillar in the life of the human being.

my hobby is learning philosophy and astronomy.

Without further ado, I hope you are doing well.

yours sincerely,

Bastian Landskron
